

MARY D. LINTERMANN, P.E.

Mary is Director of Business Development for Engelberth Construction, a $100 million general construction firm headquartered in Colchester, VT. Mary graduated from Bucknell University with a B.S. in engineering and is a licensed Professional Engineer. She began her engineering career with a Top 50 International Engineering Firm, and eventually transitioned from engineering to Strategic Planning services for their parent company. Mary's career experience includes engineering, marketing, business development, and strategic planning. Mary lives in Stowe.

12/13/12